ARTICLE II

Status and Utilization of Personnel

1. Personnel serving under this Agreement are officers recruited through the Danish International Development Agency (referred to as DANIDA) or through other channels under agreement with DANIDA to serve either on short-term or long-term assignments and whose salaries are paid in full by the Danish Government.

2. HMG/N shall in each case provide DANIDA with a complete job description for the officer wanted defining the duties of the post as well as the essential and desirable qualifications of the candidate.

3. DANIDA will provide HMG/N with all information necessary for the appraisal of the candidate such as training and previous professional experience.

4. HMG/N and DANIDA will jointly decide in which cases the Nepalese counterparts shall have to be assigned by HMG/N to officers made available by the Danish Government within the framework of this Agreement or other measures to be devised in order to achieve the desired objectives.

5. In carrying out his assignment every officer will be subject to the instruction and such laws of Nepal as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

6. Officers shall be immune from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts performed by them in their official capacity.

7. (a) Except in cases of wilful misconduct or gross negligence HMG/N shall bear all risks and claims resulting from or occurring in the course of, or otherwise connected with any operation covered by this Agreement. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing HMG/N shall indemnify and hold harmless the Danish Government and the officers made available by the Danish Government against any and all liability, suits, actions, demands, damages, costs or fees on account of death or injury to persons or property or any other losses resulting from or connected with any act or omission performed in the course of operations covered by this Agreement.

- (b) HMG/N shall ensure that all officers and their families shall enjoy the full protection of the law.

HMG/N shall further ensure that the officers and their families will always be treated in a manner no less favourable than that enjoyed by technical assistance personnel assigned to Nepal by other countries or by international organizations. In the event of arrest or detention for any reason of an officer made available by the Danish Government or spouses or dependents of such officers or of criminal proceedings being instituted against them, the liaison officer to DANIDA, the DVS-office in Kathmandu, shall be notified immediately.

8. (a) HMG/N shall have the right to take action to replace any officer whose work or conduct is unsatisfactory; before exercising such right HMG/N shall inform the Danish Government.

- (b) The Danish Government shall have the right to recall any officer at any time before exercising such right the Danish Government shall, unless exceptional circumstances demand that such officers be recalled immediately, consult with HMG/N for that purpose as well as on arrangements for securing rapid replacement of such personnel.

9. If agreed upon between DANIDA and the Competent Authorities of HMG/N an officer may be transferred from one post to another during the period of assignment.
